

Design Miami's 10th edition

In 1954, Ettore Sottsass submitted this refreshing mint-green Formica bedroom set to a competition run by the design magazine Domus; he won second place, losing out to Angelo Mangiarotti. Sottsass's friend, the 78-year-old artist and designer Nanda Vigo, has created the casually-stacked installation on the stand of Erastudio Apartment-Gallery (E25), although the watery effect is thanks to the gallery's Patricia Testi's mirrored linoleum floor, which she also uses in her Milan-space.
